

Olney Adventist Preparatory School
Home & School Association
2007-2008 School Year

Olney Adventist Preparatory School and the Home & School Association believe that parent involvement creates a sense of unity between home, school, and the child. This form will assist us in pooling information that will improve parent communication in regards to special events, volunteer, committee opportunities and other school related activities. This form is necessary to complete your registration process. We would like you to fill in the Parent Information completely and return it with other registration forms.
